Alice's Garden

Digital fashion prints for a determined and contemporary woman, who wishes to affirm and communicate through what she wears and the places she lives in. Each piece is expertly crafted by skilled artisans, using high quality fabrics, with unique colors and patterns.

Alice's Garden

Our fall/winter 2022-23 collection was inspired by the artworks of multiple designers and illustrators: some of those were the leafy figures by Linnéa Andersson, the curious and wary wattle gardens by Liv Lee and the Rafaela Mascaro marvelous ability of mixing prints. All related to a magical universe, reminiscent of the gardens of Alice in Wonderland (1951), in a cartoon-like atmosphere, with defined contours and eye-catching pop colours.

Sizes: 38 - 40 - 42 - 44 - 46

This print took reference from a scene of the film in which Alice meets some humanized flowers, that sing for her about their typical “golden” afternoon; a chorus of sweet voices, that tells a story of wealth, happiness and romance.

A place where the sun is “like a toy balloon”, where tiger lilies love the dandelions and strings of violets are singing all in tune. It’s a very peaceful life, told by the song written by Sammy Fain and Bob Hilliard, Golden Afternoon.

This prints series was inspired by the arrival of Alice in the magical world of Wonderland, after following the White Rabbit and falling down his hole. There, she finds herself surrounded by floating objects, turned upside down and heading in different directions.

This concept was translated into patterns whose motifs move upwards and downwards, both in a linear or a messy way, in such an explosion of colours and flowers, mixed with more abstract shapes.
